PROFILE

I am a Frontend Developer with over 2 years of professional experience, focusing on web and mobile application development with JavaScript, TypeScript, React, Redux (Redux Toolkit, Redux Saga), Material UI, Tailwind CSS, and Bootstrap. I have hands-on experience with RESTful APIs and essential developer tools like Postman, Git, GitHub, and Bitbucket, ensuring efficient collaboration and version control. Additionally, I have actively engaged in mobile app creation using React Native for cross-platform applications.

Currently, I am seeking a new project and interested in joining a dynamic and ambitious team. I am passionate about creating valuable products, taking on exciting challenges, and fostering personal growth. As a fast learner, I adapt quickly to new technologies. Being in Ukraine, I have ideal conditions for productive and uninterrupted remote work.
